

THE RAILROADER

1967

JOE,

WELL, OLE PAL, IT'S BEEN ONE HECK OF A YEAR. (THAT'S WHAT EVERYBODY SAYS) YOU SHOULD REALLY ENJOY NEXT YEAR WHEN YOU'RE A SENIOR. I'VE REALLY ENJOYED THIS YEAR AND HONESTLY HATE TO LEAVE.

LET'S SEE, THE YEAR STARTED OUT WITH FOOTBALL. THE GAMES WERE GREAT BUT PRACTICE STUNK. THEN BASKETBALL, WHAT HAPPENED TO YOU? THEN TRACK, WE WERE REALLY FORTUNATE. THEN THE JR-SR. AND COMBO. TOO MUCH!! ESPECIALLY FOR YOU. LOOK MAN, NEXT YEAR BE READY FOR THE STATE TRACK MEET WE BLEW IT!

REMEMBER THE CARNIVAL? YOU'RE A SUCKER! I STILL HAVE THAT BLACK DOG.

REMEMBER THAT NIGHT AT THE DRIVE-IN? YOU'D BETTER WATCH YOURSELF. THAT BRINGS ME TO THE PRESENT. OH YEA, THANKS FOR SEEING ABOUT LATHAM'S GIFT.

HOLD THE PLACE DOWN NEXT YEAR. YOU CAN DO GREAT THINGS IF YOU'D ~~AMM~~. I SUPPOSE I'LL SEE YOU THIS SUMMER. WE'LL HAVE TO GET TOGETHER AND DO SOMETHING. TAKE IT EASY OR OTHERWISE.

A FRIEND IN PAIN,

FOREWORD

A new year filled with promise dawns at C. H. S. The 1967
 Railroader strives to present a vivid picture of special events and to recall the everyday happenings of school life.

Ice,
 It's been great knowing you

Joe,

I have really enjoyed knowing you these past few years. I think you are the nicest, sweetest, coolest boy in the Jr. class. I'm not just saying that because that's what you are supposed to say in annuals, but it's what I've always thought and sincerely mean. Remember all of those practices for the Valentine's skit. It was so much fun. I'm really going to miss the things like that next year and the people like you. Don't let everybody forget all the seniors because I'm sure that we will always remember CHS and what it stands for. Have a great summer but don't get into too many fights.

Love,

Javet

"You'll make a great Senior!"

"Listen to the Exhortation of the Dawn!

Look to this Day!

For it is Life, the very Life of Life.

its brief course lie all the Verities and Realities of your Existence:

The Bliss of Growth,

The Glory of Action,

The Splendor of Beauty.

For Yesterday is but a Dream,

And Tomorrow is only a Vision;

But Today well-lived makes every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,

And Every Tomorrow a Vision of Hope.

Look well therefore to this Day!

Such is the Salutation of the Dawn."

INSTRUCTION AND SERVICES

Learning constitutes the very light of life.

As the last bell sounds, students and teachers eagerly leave school.

The Library, with its wide assortment of books, aids students with their assignments.

Bustling and busy days

A day at Crewe High School is active as students hurry to and from classes, dig in lockers, and gulp their lunches before the bell rings.

But the excitement of football, basketball, and baseball games, assembly programs, and special events provide diversion from books.

In Home Economics, Ellen Shell concentrates on cutting out a dress.

Mrs. Harrelson, Physical Ed Instructor, measures the jumping distance of one of her students.

Hal Hardaway, S.C.A. President, moves the Flag before assembly.

Dispatcher Editor Kay Roberts and Buddy Webster are busy preparing the school newspaper.

dawn at C.H.S.

Under the supervision of Mr. John Young, girls sign up for basketball.

The Band marches to a swinging number during Homecoming festivities.

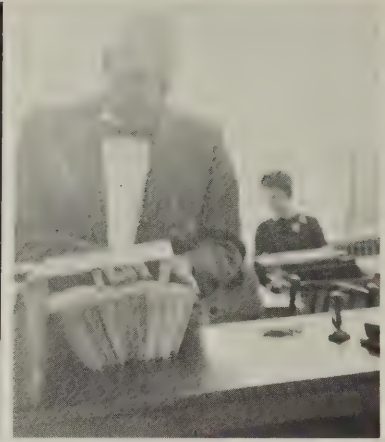

C. H. S. students dance around the bonfire after a pep rally.

Mrs. Fowlkes, French Teacher, carefully checks students' work.

Mrs. Peggy Golubic, the new Library Assistant, reviews a book list.

In the office Mr. Via and Mrs. Redford are hard at work.

Each day reflects the

The American Legion presents new flags to the C. H. S. Color Guard.

Cheerleaders boost school spirit during pep rally.

Mrs. Leath puts Donna McCann to work washing windows.

At Halloween, the cafeteria staff dons masks and costumes to serve their "ghoulish grub."

A member of the janitorial staff cleans the furnace room.

Mrs. Wilson and Coach Golubic resolve guidance problem.

vividness of school life

Faculty and students work closely together to provide a friendly, co-operative atmosphere for work and study. Teachers' aides, new to C. H. S. this year, assist faculty members with paperwork to give teachers more time to concentrate on classroom preparation and to help individual students. Realizing the value of a day well lived, students strive to use their time in school wisely and to obtain every possible benefit from their countless opportunities. Days swirl by in a rush of work, excitement, frustration, fulfillment, and achievement. As tomorrows become realities, both teachers and students feel satisfaction and pride in their accomplishments.

Miss Pond instructs Jack Daniel in the use of the new microscope, donated to the biology department by the Class of 1967 as a memorial to their beloved biology teacher, Mrs. Bridgforth.

Mr. Young watches intently as Billy Pugh and Hal Hardaway perform an experiment in physics lab.

Mrs. Farley puts the finishing touches on an attractive bulletin board for her classroom.

Carolyn Riggs and Barbara Gilliland make use of the view-deck, one of the many helpful features of the Guidance Department.

Varied activities enliven

Learning takes on new meaning with the many innovations. With the addition of an office practice program, the Business Department has been moved to the Annex where a fully equipped room has been built.

On the already crowded Home Ec lawn, a large, rented trailer houses complicated remedial reading equipment. This program is instructed by Mrs. Elizabeth Robertson.

Long-awaited T.V.'s have been installed in the English, History, and Biology classrooms.

After class, senior girls crowd lockers in a mad scramble for books and papers.

Business students admire cabinets in new addition to the Annex which houses the business machines.

Mr. Clingenpeel watches as James Arrington uses band saw in shop.

Juniors in Mrs. Trice's English class view one of the new educational television sets placed in high school this year.

instruction

The band program, under the direction of Mr. Paul Riley, adds color and enthusiasm to school life since it has combined its efforts with the Color Guard, Drill Team, and the Teen Twirlers.

Typing students work diligently to improve their speed and skill.

Mr. Latham uses a giant slide rule to compute a problem in Algebra II class.

A new trailer, to be used for remedial reading, is placed next to the Home Ec Cottage.

World geography students Nancy Schutt, Stuart Covington, and Janet Robertson point out countries on the map of Asia.

"Double, double, toil and trouble." Three gruesome witches, Nancy Flippen, Lucy Spencer, and Susan DuPriest enact a scene from Macbeth in senior English class.

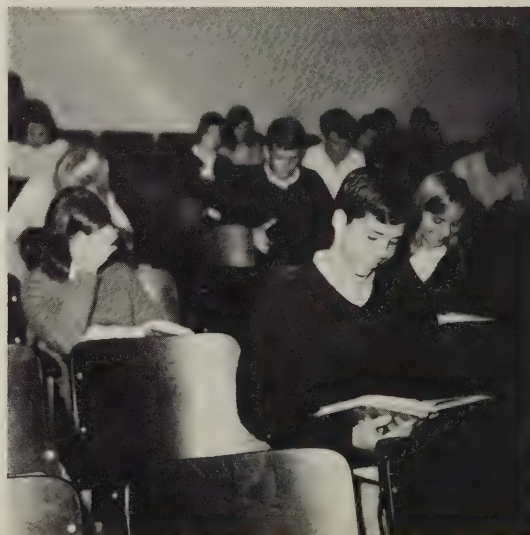

The academic program is vital and throbbing

Students of English, world geography, Latin, and history are among those engaged in re-enacting the Constitutional Convention, portraying scenes from Macbeth, locating Viet Nam on a map, and discussing the devastation along the Po and Arno rivers of Italy. Various activities such as these provide diversion from the daily classroom routine and keep students informed about world events.

Students in Latin I class concentrate on writing sentences while Robbie Hawkes lends one ear to Mrs. Boswell's explanation.

Students in one of the six study halls held in the auditorium make use of table-top desks.

S.C.A. brightens and enriches school life

The Crewe High Student Cooperative Association serves to govern and guide student and club activities. Every student belongs to the S. C. A.

The Council is made up of the S. C. A. officers, class and club presidents, and an elected representative from each homeroom. Mrs. Christine Clark acts as sponsor.

All assembly programs are sponsored and scheduled by the S. C. A. A part of its income is derived by the presentation of Southeastern Assemblies.

Homecoming activities are put on by the Council. This year a project to sell C. H. S. decals was initiated with the hope of boosting school spirit while raising money.

Delegates are sent to district and state conferences to learn how to serve their school better.

S.C.A. pianists, Susan DuPriest and Lucy Spencer, practice for assembly.

Members of S. C. A. Council, Hal Hardaway, Susan DuPriest, Donald Vaughan, Wayne Gowin, Arthur Fender, Nancy Flippen, and Lucy Spencer, listen as Mrs. Clark explains the new decal.

Susan DuPriest, District Committee member, prepares her discussion topic before the meeting.

Betas promote leadership and scholarship

Beta Sponsor, Mrs. Mary Winn Fowlkes: President, Donald Vaughan; Vice President, Steve Weishaar; Secretary, Susan DuPriest; Treasurer, Louise Eubank; Reporter, Doris Toney, and Co-Sponsor, Miss Gloria Pond.

The Beta Club promotes honesty, service, and leadership. Beta Members attempt to create a desire for higher achievement, better leadership, and higher moral character within the school, home, and the community.

Students who have maintained a scholastic average of "B" or better through the mid-term of their sophomore year are considered for membership. Each prospective member must be screened by the faculty and by the club. The new members are installed into the club during a tapping ceremony which is held in assembly.

The traditional Valentine program is sponsored by the Beta Club. The highlight of the Club's year is the annual State Beta Convention held this year at the Hotel John Marshall in Richmond.

Enthusiastic Beta Members embark on their journey to the famed Beta Convention.

Library Club diffuses knowledge

Mrs. Wilson, Doris Toney, and Sharon Jones hastily search in the card file during the busy sixth period study hall.

Janet Simonton takes time out from her duties at the paperback stand for a quick look at her homework.

The twenty-three Library assistants, who have regular duties, serve the entire student body by aiding Mrs. Helen Wilson in the efficient services that the library offers. Library Club membership has swelled to thirty-three this year.

The Club raises money by selling paperback books every Thursday. A large portion of the funds is used to purchase books for the library.

Some highlights of club work this year were installation of new members, a supper at the Community Center, and observance of National Book Week.

Student assistants provide invaluable help in the library at all times.

Donna Estep and Mrs. Wilson straighten the overflow of new books received by the library this year.

Band evinces its ability

The Crewe High School Marching Unit is under the direction of Mr. Paul H. Riley. Mr. Riley, who came to us this year as our new band director, organized a Color Guard, re-organized the Drill Team, and combined them with the band, which is now one of the largest marching groups in this area. The Unit Commander is Susan DuPriest.

The Band, the heart of the Unit, boasted 27 members at the beginning of the year and was 54 strong by the time of the big Crewe Christmas Parade. The Band Commander and Drum Majorette is Bonnie Dixon. Kathy Robertson is a new attraction this year twirling her fire baton at parades and shows.

Also new to the Unit this year is the Band Color Guard under the command of Jo Ann Curry. The flags, standards, and guns carried by the Color Guard were gifts to the school by the Crewe V. F. W. Chapter, V. F. W. Auxiliary, and American Legion.

The high-stepping Drill Team, the third member of the school's marching unit, has Madeline Leath as its commander. She is assisted by Carol Jennings. New this year are the rustling blue and white pompons which the girls flaunt.

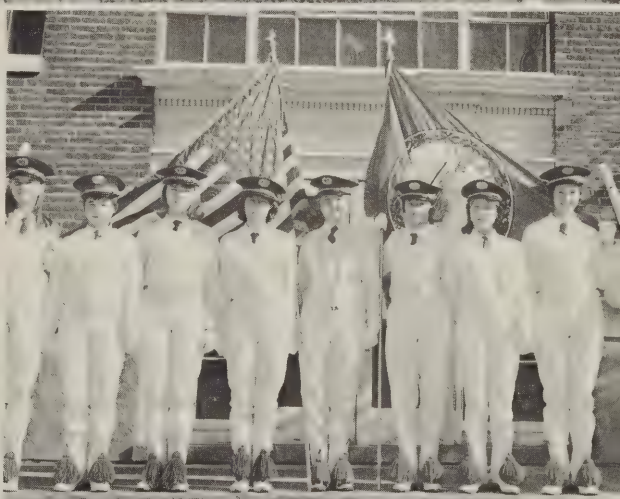

Mr. Riley produced and directed the lively half-time shows presented by the Unit. In cooperation with the Victoria Band, the Homecoming show was considered by many to be the best in years. Long hours of practice and much hard work go into every performance. The Crewe Marching Unit has added a number of trophies to the school's collection this year.

Railroader Staff captures aurora of memories

Mrs. E. Wilson, Sponsor; Chuck Bradshaw, Business Manager; Susan DuPriest and Nancy Flippen, Co-Editors; Mrs. J. Yates, Sponsor.

Each new school year engages the Railroader Staff in preparation of a permanent record of the happenings at Crewe High School. Many students and faculty members are unaware of their part in this endeavor to preserve school memories.

Through advertisements of local businesses and subscriptions by organizations and students, the Railroader is self-supporting. A special thanks go to the excellent staff of homeroom representatives who were responsible for individual sales.

The Railroader Staff is grateful to Ranny Humphreys for his photographic skills, to the editors who worked tirelessly, and to the sponsors, and all who aided in making this, the 1967 Railroader, provide you with a pleasant afterglow of thoughts and memories of this year.

F.H.A. Projects:

This year the Crewe Chapter emphasized the importance for youth to establish purposeful goals and to work toward these goals through job training and career choices. An assembly was presented to the student body to give them a better understanding of F.H.A. and what it stands for. A guest speaker, Miss Mavis Gibbs, Home Service Adviser at Southside Electric, gave an informative talk on vocational opportunities. During this assembly, the F. H. A. officers explained the meaning of their emblem.

The Crewe Chapter recognizes Linda Currin as an outstanding member, elected as Treasurer of the Longwood Federation.

This year for the first time, members of the F.H.A. wear their emblem and colors, red and white, each Monday.

Future Farmers learn by doing

The Future Farmers of America is an extracurricular activity having its origin in the school curriculum of vocational agriculture. It provides educational, recreational, and leadership activities among its members, which number 48 this year.

The Crewe F.F.A. Chapter is affiliated with District LAND Federation, in which ten schools from six different counties participate, the Virginia F.F.A. Association, and the National F. F. A.

Membership degrees in the Chapter include Green Hands, Chapter Farms, State Farmers, and American Farmers.

National blue and corn gold are the F.F.A. colors, which appear on all equipment and paraphernalia.

Future Farmers of America members follow their slogan, "Learn to do by doing," through livestock projects, crop projects, and employer-trainer projects.

"Learning to do, Doing to Learn, Earning to Live, Living to Serve" is the motto of the Future Farmers which further challenges all of its members.

S.T.P.A. Awards Dispatcher First Place

The school newspaper, The Dispatcher, gives the students of Crewe High a vivid picture of school life. As a member of the Southern Interscholastic Press Association, the Dispatcher meets the requirements and standards which are set for high school publications.

The newspaper is sponsored and edited by the English department under the direction of Mrs. Grace Trice and published by members of Typing II, supervised by Mrs. Dorothy Yeatts.

A typical week for the Dispatcher includes headlines, deadlines, and lost minds. Nevertheless, the workers are rewarded by the eagerness of the students as they receive the paper each week.

Football fans enjoy services of Ace

Initiates become wrapped up in their job of decorating goal posts with multi-colored streamers.

The Ace of Clubs, a service club, has as its main activity the sponsorship of athletics. This year the Club operated the concession stand at all home football games. As usual, the Club donated proceeds from sales to the athletic fund.

The Ace initiates, chosen from the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior Classes, were honored at a tea held this year at the home of Nancy Flippen. An impressive candlelight service, in which the initiates were formally inducted into the Club, climaxed the evening. As initiates, the neophytes performed the most undesirable jobs, such as cleaning the concession stand after a hectic game.

Ace members wear the club colors of green and white each Thursday. In addition, the clover-leaf emblem with the letters A-C-E must be worn on either the first or third Thursdays of each month.

Pep takes turn as baseball sponsor

The Pep Club rendered its services to the public during baseball season. Pep members operated the concession stand at all games played at home. The athletic fund received the income acquired from the operation of this stand.

Girls in the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes are considered for membership into the Pep Club. The new members this year were Mary Arendall, Cheryl Dixon, Kay Roberts, Susan Sheffield, Lucy Spencer, and Diane Vanarsdall. These girls were initiated at the annual Pep Tea, held this year at the home of Bonnie and Cheryl Dixon.

The Pep colors, red and white, are worn each Friday. On the first Friday of the month, members wear the Pep emblem.

Varsity Club encourages athletic excellence

The Varsity Club was organized in 1962 by a group of enthusiastic lettermen and their sponsor, Coach Golubic.

The membership of this Club is limited to boys who have won their varsity letter in football, basketball, baseball, or track. The principles and objectives of the Club are to stimulate interest in the athletic program of Crewe High School, to promote sportsmanship, and to maintain a high respect for the varsity letter.

Every year the Varsity Club presents a rookie-of-the-year award, commonly known as the "Rinky-Dink Award," to some non-letterman of the football team who has contributed the most enthusiasm and support to the team effort. This year Bill Bowles was presented with this plaque.

As in preceding years, the Varsity Club has printed and sold official programs at all home football games and has printed football schedules, which were placed in store windows in Crewe and Burkeville.

Valentine Royalty entertained by Betas

A radiant court composed of representatives from all classes at C.H.S. paid homage to the 1967 King and Queen of Hearts, Jack Bishop and Kay Roberts. The "serious-minded" Betas presented a madcap skit featuring fractured fairy tales and mixed-up nursery rhymes.

Members of the court gaze at the newly crowned king and queen.

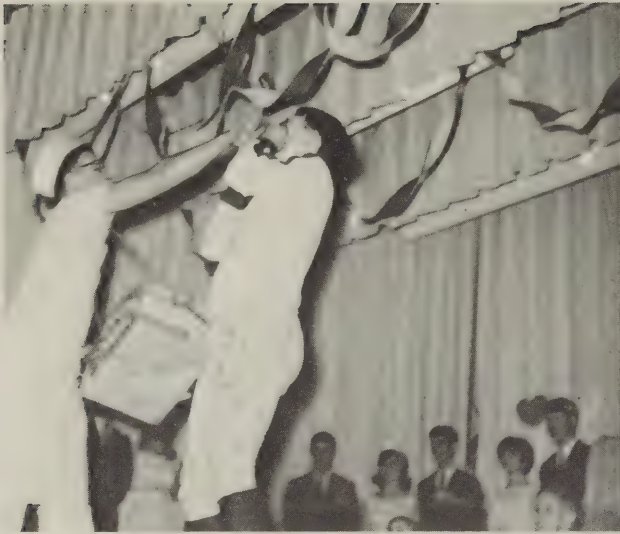

The "This Little Piggy Went to Market" skit featured four sweet little pigs and one big swine played by Billy Willis. Lucy Spencer appeared as a sexy pussycat.

In "Little Red Riding Hood" Joe Wilson played a very realistic wolf. Highlights of the program were the appearances of "King Soul and the Fiddlers Three", a soul band composed of Eddie Green, Wayne Goin, Tommy Knight, and Don Harrelson, and members of the faculty in type-cast roles. Mr. Latham appeared as a tree, Mr. Young as a mean teacher, and Coach Golubic as a bear.

Star (and biggest ham) of the show, Coach Golubic, growls at a bird, played by Jerry Williamson, for trying to interrupt him when he was saying, "I'm just a nice, sweet old bear!"

Cinderella (Bonnie Dixon) is amazed to find that her fairy godmother from "Fairy Tech", Nancy Flippen, has pulled her hair off instead of making her beautiful.

Little Red Riding Hood, Susan DuPriest, twitches by the "tree" in her red miniskirt.

The rising J.V.'s show the

This year the Crewettes were under the supervision of Mr. Robert Doyle and Mr. John Young. These coaches worked diligently helping the team to improve its basketball techniques.

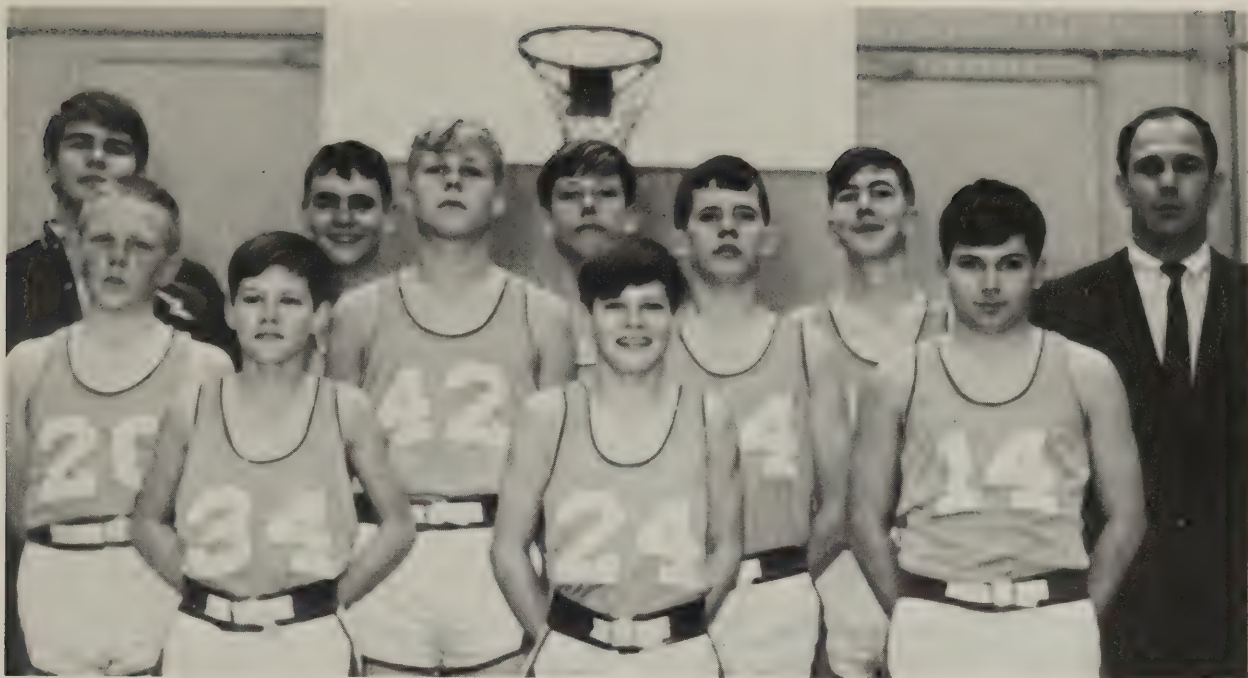

The Crewettes, as well as the Railroaders, were hindered by the lack of a gymnasium. Although they did not win any games this year, the Crewettes did not let this dampen their spirits. They worked hard all year for the good of the team.

FINALS

Seniors listen to the exhortation of the dawn of a new tomorrow.

Seniors glow as

Honor students of 1967 are Linda Gunn, 4th honor; Susan DuPriest, 3rd honor; Nancy Flippen, Valedictorian; Carol Lunsford, 5th honor; and Hal Hardaway, Salutatorian.

The theme of the 1967 Commencement exercises was "The World in Revolution." Commencement began on Sunday, June 4, with the Baccalaureate Sermon given by the Reverend H. C. Pope. Reverend Pope gave many helpful suggestions to the youth of today who must face this challenging world. This theme of revolution was the predominate theme of the graduation addresses given on Friday, June 9. Hal Hardaway, the Salutatorian, spoke on "Revolution in Government"; Linda Gunn, the fourth honor graduate, explained the "Revolution in Economics"; Carol Lunsford, the fifth honor student, spoke on the "Revolution in Education"; and Susan DuPriest, the third honor student, spoke on the "Revolution in Morality."

Presentations of awards and scholarships were made by Coach Robert Golubic. The Danforth Foundation

awards are conferred

Awards went automatically to the Valedictorian and Salutatorian. Lucy Spencer and Wayne Norton received the American Legion School Awards; Arthur Fender received the Future Farmers of America Star Farmer Award; and Janet Simonton and Jack Bishop received the Good Sportsmanship Awards. The Balfour Award, a key award given for scholarship, loyalty, and achievement, was presented to Susan DuPriest. Among those receiving scholarships to college were Donald Vaughan, Wayne Norton, and Billy Pugh. Both Lucy Spencer and Wayne Norton won a Scholarship Award.

Mr. R. P. Via, Principal, awarded diplomas to members of the graduating class.

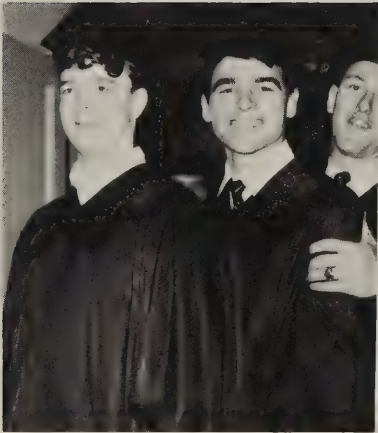

Nancy Flippen, the Valedictorian, concluded the exercises with her speech on the "Youth in a World in Revolution."

Charles Boswell proudly displays his hard-earned diploma to some of his fellow classmates.

Bonnie Dixon patiently awaits her turn to march down the aisle.

Jack Bishop, surrounded by Eddie Greene and Billy Pugh, smiles happily after receiving his Sportsmanship Award.

The Honor Students pay close attention to Linda Gunn's speech.

Carolyn Jones poses for the photographer while all the other graduates listen closely to the speaker.

"The Fugs" entertain everyone with their songs amid the "soothing" beats of the bongo and the "stirring" sounds of the guitar.

Smiling faces of the teachers, Mrs. Trice, Mrs. Boswell, and Mr. Doyle, are proof that they, too, are enjoying the banquet.

Juniors say "Welcome to the Village"

Juniors entertained the Seniors in the "cool" atmosphere of the one, the only, Greenwich Village. "The Fugs," the well-known singing group composed of Louise Eubank on the bongos, Betsy Clay, on the guitar, Doris Toney, Ellen Shell, Steve Ingram, Steve Weishaar, and Bill Bowles sang folk songs in the dark shadows of their hang-out. Following the banquet, the Seniors renewed their tour of the Village in the beautifully decorated Community Center where they danced to the music of Carol Kay and "The Kaydets."

Susan Sheffield, an artist in "The Village," is busy creating a masterpiece.

These two rough-looking guys, Bill Bowles and Steve Ingram, work in a "swinging club."

Bonnie Dixon and her date seem to be having a good time at the dance.

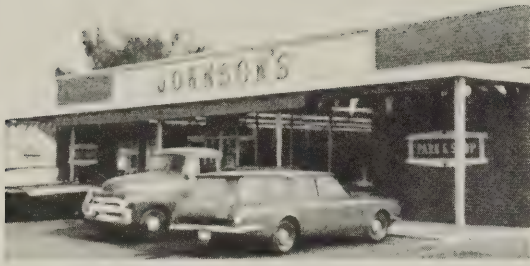

Susan DuPriest and Dexter Oliver give a toast to health and happiness for all.

Well Joe,

Can you believe it? The year's about ended again. Harkn't this been one heck of a year!

I wished we had some classes together.

Remember I had a blast. Ha! Ha! Those really beautiful flowers were anything like that. Boy! I don't think I've ever danced with so many teachers. Ha! Ha!

Oh yeh! How could I forget to mention my little ride (in your arms) Ha! Oh well! I really had a wonderful time and I hope you did too.

Hi Joe,
ALL I CAN SAY IS THAT IT HAS BEEN FUN! AND I MEAN FUN! WE HAVE REALLY HAD A GOOD TIME THIS YEAR AND I KNOW NEXT YEAR IS GOING
TO BE EVEN GREATER! RIGHT? STUDY
HALL WAS A REAL SCREAM. REMEMBER
WHEN WE WENT TO THE HOMECOMING
DANCE? KINDA SHORT NOTICE, BUT I HAD A GOOD TIME. DON'T EVER FORGET THE NIGHT WE WERE AT THE DRIVE-IN!
OH BROTHER! WE SURE WORKED HARD
FOR THE JR-SR. DIDNT WE? I THOUGHT
IT TURNED OUT FINE ALTHOUGH I
DIDNT GET THAT PROMISED DANCE!
I DON'T THINK YOU WERE HURTING
FOR ANYTHING AWAY! HOW 'BOUT THAT?
NEXT YEAR WE WILL BE THE BIG,
BAD SENIORS AND I KINDA HATE IT.
LIKE IT'LL BE OUR LAST YEAR AT GOOD
OLE' CHS. BOO HOO! THEN IT'S OFF TO COLLEGE! HOPE YOU HAVE A GREAT
SUMMER. DON'T RAISE TOO MUCH. WE STILL HAVE A FRATERNITY PARTY TO GO TO, REMEMBER THAT. HOPE TO SEE YOU THIS SUMMER -AND OF COURSE NEXT YEAR!

Love ya!
LYNDA

Dear Friend & Compatriot -

Well, well, well, it looks like this year is finally over. God God, ain't it been one continuous blast. How about those parties at HS/C (Sept 17 & March 10)? Man, the Temptations socked it to us. Remember that night we went to AJ's and had all that booze - that was the night I got caught by your parents. How about Homecoming? - HS/C at 4:00 AM with Slick. The basketball game with RM/C - don't ever get that bad again. We only got 3 months until football and the return of our outstanding defensive careers. Look, I'll see you at our Combo on the 9TH - be sure to come; I need the money. Don't get too much this summer & I see you around.

~~D/L~~

JOE,

Stay Cool and KEEP out of Fights. Stop snowing Girl by tell them you think they should be good. It make the rest of us look bad. Hope to SEE you a lot this summer. Good luck.

Howard

Joe T. Wilson,

This has been one heck of a year. We really raise a lot of hell this year. I'll never forget the time we spent the night at Walrod's. We should have went to Richmond. We probably gotten killed, but it would have been a lot of fun. Play it cool this summer and don't get too much.

Trust Me,

Gary

P.S. We still haven't had our "Wipeout" in your Chevy. We'll have to have it next year.

I shall miss you so much next year. You, who ~~have~~ always been near me when I needed you. Joe, I've enjoyed seeing you having your good times, especially at the Jr.-Sr. (You didn't dance with me and I was really hurt.) I'll never forget the Valentine Skit. I know I probably made you mad, but maybe one day soon you'll feel differently. Thank you for taking care of me at the dance. We'll have to do many things together this summer. You can teach me to play golf - I really would like that. We'll have a good time at the pool, too. I'll even drive you around in our golf cart.

Don't ever lose your warm personality, your sweet disposition, your sincere and sweet demeanor, and your endearing charm. I'll always remember your sweet face and friendly smile. These are lasting images of you which I shall always cherish.

Longwood is only a hop, skip, and a jump away. You and Harrelson will have to hop on up next year. I'm sure there will be something exciting to do.

Please don't forget about me next year. I know your sweetness will be a terrific asset to C. H. S. Just think, you'll be a Senior. You'll feel proud walking down the aisle while everyone else is standing for you. Be proud, too, you deserve it.

Be sweet and come to see me.

Adoringly,
Susan

Joe,

Well, let me see, where should I begin.

Remember the night we went to see the Suprem's. Wasn't that swinging and then, too, you'll get mad cause I had my head set on going to Bradshaw's. ha! Sorry about that.

Then there was the night I was at Hampton Sydney and Carolyn got with Donnie and you'll had to end up bringing us home. Boy, my date was mad. I was never so glad to leave in my whole life.

Then there were the times when you and Chet would start in on me and I'd end up getting mad, but all of these things and more made up memories I'll never forget.

Be good and come to see me

Love,

Wanda

P.S. Stay out of trouble!

Joe T. Wilson,

Drunk (joke) ^{Low} ~~low~~ are you?

Are you reading this Mrs. Wilson.
if you are I'm fooling when I say you are a drunk. You have fun this summer and stay out of trouble. Watch out for my

Joseph Thomas,

Well, we've had a blast this year at the golf course, drive-in, basketball games, etc. You've been a really great buddy, + a par golfer. Well qualify for the Southland next year, + give em hell. This year you + I will finish 1 & 2 in the Southland. Take it Easy
Mike.

Joe,

How can I tell you how much fun I've had this year talking to you and goofing off. Start with really was a night that I will always remember! Personally,

I think you are the greatest guy who ever walked the earth. It has been one of the high lights of this year knowing little old you.

I am looking forward to seeing you this summer.

Remember the Del. skit

You were such an adorable goof. He is so really into something. Everyone loved you see packing bags. I hope you have the best of luck in future.

Love,
Johnnie

Joe,
It really has been great one year. You being in school with forget most just the last year. Practicing for the last year. Always remember for the last year. Best of luck for the last year. and great summer. Come to see me this summer.

Love ya,
Haron

Joe,
It's been a great and busy year for us seniors! Weren't the jr. so fun? I loved working on it! I'm so glad the seniors liked it. I'll never forget that day we spent in Richmond - the park, the restaurant, and the magnificent Peter, Paul, & Mary concert! So was all so great! Thank you so much. I'll admit I was a little weird with that cooper false rumor deal, but everything okay now. It was just a misunderstanding. Well, have a great summer and have take care.

Joe,

It's sort of hard to put in words how much I appreciate your friendship. This year would not have been worth anything if I hadn't had a friend like you. We really found the action this year. I was always meeting you after football games and you, me, and Daddy I would go lay down some soul some where. Then my luck ran out one Friday night when we went to Farmville with a nice group of boys. I was afraid we weren't going to make it home that night, but when I think about it, I'm surprised we make it home after any night. The Mill always proved to be filled with wild and interesting experiences. It wasn't anything for us to go to the Blackstone Dance and then to the Mill and then end up in a back seat passed out all in the same night and still be home by 1:00 A.M. I almost forgot the night at the drive-in back in the fall when I became a father. It should drop out any day now. On Dec. 4, 1966 we played our first of many visits to the Mosque. I really enjoyed that show, but the ride home was even better. I can faintly remember a black spot someone said was Lou Rauls, but that's about it. I don't remember that ride home at all. I do remember making a service station attendant dance like fuck. I got my laughs by watching Simmons suffer. I wish I could have made it into that dance, but the man gave me the thumb so I cooled it. I must have been playing brave man by what some girls said about our ride from Blackstone. I sometimes wish we hadn't stopped at Hoxen Bay that night and gone all the way. We were always rocking out at the Valentine slot practices. How about the party a Donnie's before the actual slot we were the "bloomer boys" that day. I think the slot itself was a success, but I can't remember it too well. We were pushing Mrs. Henderson's car. I still can't believe the size of that pyramist we left. We gave poor Louise quite a scare. The night we went to Hampton-Sydney to see the Temptations couldn't have been anymore perfect. You made a lot of trips to the car that night. That was a night that has proved to be very special to me. Weren't the Temptations great. We but each frat. about 6 times looking for you two. I almost missed you

Joe,

How's my great friend - and you've really been one this year. Remember last fall - I really had a great time. I don't know what I would have done this year in Algebra if it hadn't been for you. How about English though - remember Mrs. West and you all switching names. I don't believe she ever knew the difference. You and Steve could really cause some trouble (but you thought I was going to say something else). Joe, you're really a great guy and don't forget it. Your willingness to help, and your good matured attitude will always keep your friends. Maybe you think I'm saying these things just to be saying something but I really mean it. You've got a wonderful personality and it will take you many places. Yes, remember our romance in the seventh grade and how Sharon and I fought over you. Yeah, like Sharon won the battle, I suppose my heart wasn't broken too badly. I'll never forget the time I got Carolyn to call you up ~~and tell you~~ ^{sort of} after you blessed me out and tell you that I was in a upset. Girls start scheming when they're young don't they? Joe, you'll always be ~~one~~ ^{one} of my best friends and I hope you have the best of everything. Come to see me this summer.

Best wishes always

Joan

When we found you. But nothing could go wrong that night. Our last visit to the Mosque together was pretty average, although we did see a good show. I really am glad you work at the big Co-op. We will have to do something wild at Boys State, but I wish I didn't have to go. This summer should really prove to be interesting. I know we will raise plenty. I'm looking forward to our senior year, but I'll really hate to see it end and each of us go our own way. I hope we can do everything together next year. I'll never forget you Joe. You have been the best friend I've ever had and the greatest guy I've ever known. I'd even fight if you if you asked me to. I know that proves something to you.

you, Friend Always,

T. Knight

Joe —

This, our Junior year, has been so great! I'll always remember it as one of the happiest of my life.

Typing class will be a good thing to talk about first. Remember, at the beginning of the year, when you and Donnie and I all sat at the back of the room and talked and told jokes constantly? It was such fun and that was when I got to know you two really well. Y'all would mess up my hair every day and I'd turn around and pull out your typing paper all the time. We were really a crazy trio - but Mrs. J had to move you and ruin it all.

Then came Homecoming with that incident of the spilled water! I remember you and Donnie running around with mops trying to mop it up. And I said something or other to Lynda which is supposed to be the coolest remark of my life (according to you), but I can never remember it!

Something I'll always remember is climbing up that tower on Lee's mountain. The wind was blowing and I nearly froze but it was neat; I like to do different things like that. I was in a grossed up mood that night, though, and probably a drag. In fact, sometimes I really can be a real b---! That's a side of me most people don't see but I'm afraid you, poor boy, saw it. Anyway, you probably understand me very well, which makes us better friends, and, as I've told you before, when I need advice I'm going to ask you - OK?

Joe, I remember when you used to tell me you knew I'd be on the Valentine Court. I didn't believe you - never thought anything that fantastic could happen to me. Maybe you're some kind of prophet - hmmm?! Anyway, Valentines was I guess the most important event of my year. The skit turned out fine thanks to people like you. I want you to know that I'm sorry

Hi Love!

Isn't it great - school's almost out now and we'll have the summer in front of us! But in a way, I guess it's also bad that this year is over for things weren't really as bad as they seemed at the time. [#] You really did look cute that night you escorted me in the Homecoming figure! I thought you'd never come through - I guessed you guy how relieved I was when you finally strolled in the room where everybody else was already lined up. Thank you again for nominating me to be a Homecoming Princess. You just don't know how much of an honor I considered it - representing my class in the Court! It was an honorable experience I shall never forget.

Then there was the Jr. Sr. - without your help and a few others, we would never have been able to have the prom. Thanks so much, Sweet, for helping us decorate the Center and for moving the arch down to the Center after the Banquet.

It surely is nice to have a great friend who can do Algebra [#] so well! I really don't know what I would have done without your generous help. Oh yeah! and it's nice to know a walking book of jokes (Remember our conversations on the phone?) Tell me, how did we always manage to get on the same topic?

Gee, it's really nice to walk in school on a drab morning and see your beaming face - you always cheer me up and make life seem not so bad. We've just got to have more classes together next year! I might take Math 4 after all.

So I guess I'll at least see you in there.
Maybe we'll have Gov't and English together,
too, next year.

Well, Joe, I'm sort of running out of things to say except this: Stay as nice, cute, friend and sweet as you are now and I'll — you forever! I hope to see a lot of you this Summer — I'd better! Do come to see me!

Love ya,
Ellen

P.S. Can't wait til College Board Day arrives! Do ya still want to give me that ride to Richmond?

that I was so bossy and mean but that skit meant so much to me — it was my whole life for several weeks.

I'm sorry you couldn't go to the Combo because of track, it was great if you had a date who didn't leave you. But that's what you get for being CHS's track star. + new football season is only 3 mos.
away. Joe, I haven't got a very loud voice but remember that I'll be cheering for you with all my might.

You really scared me when you said y'all were leaving for NYC! Don't ever do anything that crazy-please.

Have a marvelous time this summer but take it easy. Try not to run over any cats; and if you do, please don't tell me about it. Try to write me a little while I'm away + tell me what's happening in Crew because I'
be missing you all so much.

Best wishes to a best friend.

Love ya,
Louise

Joe,

Well we've done so much during our junior year that I hardly know where to start! The Valentine skit & all of the practices were lots of fun (if you remember!) I guess the Jr.-Sr. was really the greatest event of the year. I think we all got our fill of putting that leaves crepe paper on the ceiling! Sorry about hitting you with that table! I really didn't mean too, ha! I'll never forget how I felt when you came strolling in the Community Center with that "No PARKing" sign.

Then there was the Combo... we won't go into that! Oh, and thanks for helping me with Algebra. I would have never made it without you. Have fun this summer and come to see me. Good luck in the future to a real sweet and special guy!

Love ya,
Betsy

Joe -

Keep up your track work and try not to go to Combo's before state meets. Lot's a luck.

Bob C.
